GREEN Halloween

at the Ohio Governor's Residence —
358 N. Parkview Ave. - Bexley OH 43209
Saturday, October 17th from 1-4 pm

An earth-friendly (and free!) outdoor event featuring activities, demonstrations, and discussions for adults and kids of all ages.

- See Governor Strickland's giant pumpkin patch and learn more about growing your own garden
- Decorate (and take home) your own pumpkin and/or gourd

Understand why ladybeetles, bats, worms and other earth creatures are so important to our environment

- Help us make this a "zero-waste" event through composting and recycling demonstrations
- Learn more about conservation and reducing waste in your own home
- Take a guided (on-the-hour) tour of the Heritage Garden
- Enjoy yummy bison burgers and cider with Friends of the Ohio Governor's Residence and Heritage Garden.

For security purposes, reservations for this event are required. Please RSVP to paigebilotta@gmail.com or 614.644-7644 x5 to identify all that will be attending. Photo IDs and bags will be checked prior to grounds entry. Event takes place rain or shine.
