

Forestry on Ohio's Public Lands: Teacher Field Days

June 15 & 16, 2011 ~ Tar Hollow State Forest

Where Does Our Clean Water Come From?

Water Resource Protection Through Sustainable Forestry

Headquarters – Tar Hollow State Forest, Clark Hollow Rd. off SR 327, Vinton Co.

June 15 Program (can attend either day or both days)

- 9:00 – 9:15 History and Mission of the Ohio Division of Forestry
Bob Boyles, Chief, ODNR Division of Forestry; Nate Jester, Acting Southern District Forester
- 9:15 – Watersheds, land use, and the success of Best Management Practices (BMPs)
Constance White, Ohio River Watershed Specialist, ODNR Division of Soil and Water Resources
Gary Willison, US Forest Service, Wayne National Forest, Natural Resources Group Leader
Greg Guess, Land Management Forester, ODNR Division of Forestry
Active timber sale to view the effectiveness of BMPs and other forest practices
- 12:00 – 12:30 Lunch at forest headquarters [pack your lunch, drinks provided]
- 12:30 – 3:00 Going in seine in a creek is a good thing [bring waders or old “tennis” for wading]

Jerry Iles, Watershed Educator, Ohio State University Extension
Julie Brown, Soil Conservation Technician, USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service
- 3:00 – 4:00 Evaluation at Tar Hollow State Forest Headquarters

June 16 Program

($15 for materials for June 16th program only, bring check payable to PLT-Ohio)

PROJECT LEARNING TREE Pre K-12 EDUCATOR WORKSHOP [pack your lunch, drinks provided]
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Featuring highly interactive lessons addressing environmental issues and easy to use with your students. You receive the 2011 editions of PreK-8 Environmental Education Activity Guide and Exploring Environmental Issues: Focus on Forests secondary module. Also hear an introduction to Project WET.
Sue Wintering, PLT Ohio Program Coordinator, ODNR Division of Forestry

www.ohiodnr.com/forestry

www.plt.org

